PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Next week is a full one with a number of important second readings.

The Social Security Bill and Employment Bill Second Readings are on Monday and Tuesday. Wednesday sees the Urban Development Corporation's Second Reading, which will no doubt dwell on inner city, north/south themes. Thursday is to be an Opposition Day. They have selected The Economy and BP. (The Opposition of course are unaware of the statement on Tuesday.) There is a debate on crime prevention on Friday, and the Second Reading of the Licensing Bill comes up on Monday.

The only statement so far down for next week is the Autumn
Statement on Tuesday.

PRIME MINISTER

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Next week's business clears a number of debates out of the way, but does not cover any significant legislation.

There is an Opposition Day on Monday. They are likely to have a $\frac{1}{2}$ day on offensive weapons and a $\frac{1}{2}$ day on education.

The defence estimates as usual cover two days, and there will be the normal Three-Line Whip on Wednesday. An early debate on the Scottish economy, set down for Thursday, should help the Government to resist pressure from the Scots later, and will also test Scottish Labour Members' willingness to stay late in the House on a Thursday evening. The Second Reading of the Social Security Bill is set down for the following Monday.

There are at present two Statements set down for next week. The Home Secretary on prisons, on Monday, and the Social Services Secretary on benefit uprating, on Tuesday. The latter will of course cover child benefit.

The only Statement down for the remainder of this week is your own, tomorrow afternoon.

PRIME MINISTER

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

NEXT WEEK IS THE FINAL ONE BEFORE THE HOUSE RISES FOR THE SUMMER RECESS. THE MAIN ITEMS ARE THE REMAINING STAGES OF THE FINANCE BILL, AND THE MOTION ON MINISTERIAL SALARIES AND MEMBERS' PAY.

THE REMAINING STAGES OF THE FINANCE BILL ARE IN FACT TAKEN ON MONDAY, AS WELL AS THE RATE SUPPORT GRANT MOTION FOR SCOTLAND (TO MAKE ADJUSTMENTS FOR THE TEACHERS' AWARD, FOLLOWING SIMILAR MOTIONS FOR THE REST OF THE COUNTRY THIS WEEK), AND A MOTION ON SELECTIVE ACTION AGAINST LOTHIAN REGION AND EDINBURGH. THE CONSIDERATION OF LORDS AMENDMENTS TO THE CHANNEL TUNNEL BILL MAY BE LIVELY ON TUESDAY. MINISTERIAL SALARIES AND MEMBERS' PAY FOLLOWS. THE CHIEF WHIP MAY WISH TO SAY SOMETHING ABOUT THE PAYROLL VOTE. THE LORD PRIVY SEAL IS GIVING A WRITTEN REPLY TOMORROW ON MINISTERIAL SALARIES. WEDNESDAY SEES DHSS MOTIONS AND A MOTION ON EC DOCUMENTS ON TELECOMMUNICATIONS R&D. THERE ARE MORE NORTHERN IRELAND MOTIONS ON THURSDAY, BEFORE OPPOSED PRIVATE BUSINESS AT 7.00 (ON FELIXSTOWE). ADJOURNMENT DEBATES FOLLOW ON FRIDAY.

THE PROPOSAL AT PRESENT IS FOR THREE STATEMENTS ON THE RATE SUPPORT GRANT SETTLEMENT FOR 1988/89, FOLLOWING THE ELA DISCUSSIONS, TO BE MADE NEXT WEEK. THE TIMING IS NOT YET SETTLED. THE CHANCELLOR WOULD PREFER IT TO BE AFTER THURSDAY'S PUBLIC EXPENDITURE DISCUSSION AT CABINET. THIS WOULD BE A HEAVY BURDEN IN PARLIAMENTARY TERMS AND COULD, AFTER ALLOWING FOR THE BUSINESS STATEMENT TOO, KNOCK OUT MOST OF THE TIME FOR THE NORTHERN IRELAND ORDERS. THERE MAY IN ANY CASE BE SOMETHING TO BE SAID FOR ADVANCING THE DATE TO MINIMISE THE RISK OF LEAKS. BUT NO DECISION NEEDS TO BE REACHED TOMORROW AND THE BUSINESS MANAGERS CAN CONSIDER FURTHER AT THE BEGINNING OF NEXT WEEK.

IT IS CLEARLY BETTER FOR DEPARTMENTS TO AVOID LEAVING ANNOUNCEMENTS TO THE LAST MINUTE NEXT WEEK. THE FINDINGS OF THE ZEEBRUGGE INQUIRY ARE TO BE ANNOUNCED ON FRIDAY BUT THAT OF COURSE IS NOT WITHIN THE GOVERNMENT'S CONTROL.

THE HOME SECRETARY, AS YOU KNOW, IS MAKING HIS STATEMENT ON THE PRISON POPULATION TOMORROW.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

NEXT WEEK'S BUSINESS IS DOMINATED BY THE COMMITTEE STAGE OF THE FINANCE BILL.

THE CONSOLIDATED FUND, AFTER THE SUMMER ADJOURNMENT, WILL CARRY THE BUSINESS THROUGH MONDAY NIGHT. IN ADDITION TO THE FINANCE BILL COMMITTEE STAGE THERE IS A NORTHERN IRELAND LICENSING ORDER ON TUESDAY WHICH PROVIDES FOR SUNDAY PUB OPENING IN THE PROVINCE. THIS MAY GIVE A "DRY RUN" TO OPPONENTS OF THE LICENSING BILL IN THE QUEEN'S SPEECH. THE RATE SUPPORT GRANT MOTIONS ON WEDNESDAY AFTER THE FINANCE BILL ARE TO TAKE ACCOUNT OF THE TEACHERS AWARD. FINANCE BILL COMMITTEE STAGE IS ALSO DOWN FOR THURSDAY. WINSTON CHURCHILL WILL BE FIRST WITH A PRIVATE MEMBER'S MOTION ON FRIDAY, THOUGH THE SUBJECT IS NOT YET KNOWN.

THERE ARE NO STATEMENTS DOWN FOR NEXT WEEK AT THIS STAGE. THERE IS, OF COURSE, A STATEMENT TOMORROW ON CHILD ABUSE.

THE BUSINESS OF THE WEEK BEGINNING 20TH JULY, THE LAST WEEK BEFORE THE HOUSE RISES, WILL HAVE TO ACCOMMODATE THE RATE SUPPORT GRANT SETTLEMENT STATEMENTS FOR 1988/89.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

NEXT WEEK SEES THE SECOND READING OF TWO CARRY OVER BILLS - LOCAL GOVERNMENT AND FINANCE.

THE DEBATE ON "TODAY", FIXED FOR MONDAY, WAS A DEVICE TO AVOID AN S020 DEBATE INTRUDING INTO THE DEBATE ON THE QUEEN'S SPEECH. THE SPEAKER BELIEVED THERE TO BE A CLEAR PRECEDENT FOR GRANTING AN S020 IN SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES, SET IN 1981. THE SECOND READING OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BILL WILL STILL TAKE PLACE LATER THAT DAY. ANNUAL NORTHERN IRELAND ORDERS, RENEWING DIRECT RULE, WILL TAKE PLACE ON TUESDAY, AND DR PAISLEY AND CO. CAN BE EXPECTED TO BE THERE. THE SECOND READING OF THE FINANCE BILL IS ON WEDNESDAY; THE SECOND READING OF THE REINTRODUCED DARTFORD/THURROCK CROSSING BILL ON THURSDAY; AND AN ADJOURNMENT DEBATE ON COMPETITIVENESS IN MANUFACTURING ON FRIDAY - JOHN BUTCHER TO LEAD FOR THE GOVERNMENT.

NB. THE HOUSE IS NOW EXPECTED TO RISE ON FRIDAY 24TH JULY, RETURNING ON WEDNESDAY 21 OCTOBER.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Next week's business is devoted to the Debate on the Loyal Address. There is an Adjournment Debate on tourism next Friday, on which John Lee will be leading for the Government.

You will be making a statement following the European Council, on Thursday. If there is a satisfactory result to the Aviation Council, Paul Channon may make a statement this Friday.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

THE PROGRAMME OF BUSINESS NEXT WEEK IS A FULL ONE WITH SEVERAL MAJOR ITEMS.

THE PRIVATE MEMBERS' MOTION ON MONDAY IS HARRY COHEN'S ON THE "QUALITY OF LIFE". THE SIZEWELL DEBATE FOLLOWS. IT WILL BE INTERESTING TO SEE WHETHER THE ULSTER UNIONISTS TURN UP FOR THE INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS NORTHERN IRELAND ORDER LATER ON. THE DARTFORD-THURROCK CROSSING BILL ON TUESDAY IS HYBRID. OPPOSED PRIVATE BUSINESS MAY DEAL WITH THE DOCKLANDS RAILWAY. WEDNESDAY SEES THE RETURN OF THE SCOTTISH RATES BILL; THIS WILL AUTOMATICALLY BE GUILLOTINED. THE MOTION ON THE LORD CHANCELLOR'S SALARY LATER WILL RAISE THE REVIEW BODY REPORTS AND NO DOUBT PAY, INCLUDING THE CIVIL SERVICE DISPUTE, MORE GENERALLY. REMAINING STAGES OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BILL ON THURSDAY WILL BE LIVELY. FRIDAY IS A GOOD OPPORTUNITY FOR THE GOVERNMENT TO GET OVER A GOOD STORY ON SMALL FIRMS, WITH A DEBATE ON THE ADJOURNMENT. MONDAY 18TH IS SET DOWN AS AN OPPOSITION DAY.

MICHAEL ANCRAM WILL BE MAKING A STATEMENT NEXT MONDAY ON SELECTIVE ACTION AGAINST OVERSPENDING LOCAL AUTHORITIES IN SCOTLAND. DEPENDING ON THE OUTCOME OF EA TOMORROW, THERE MAY BE A STATEMENT, ALSO ON MONDAY, ON WATER PRIVATISATION.

ALLAN STEWART'S LICENSING HOURS BILL IS LIKELY TO BE THE MAIN ITEM THIS FRIDAY.

PRIME MINISTER

TWO MISCELLANEOUS POINTS

PARLIAMENTARY BUSINESS ON 11 MAY

The Chief Whip told me today that until 7 pm on Monday, 11 May, the House will be debating Private Members' Motions. From 7 - 10 pm the business managers want to table a motion which would approve the Government's decision on Sizewell. Apparently, Mr. Walker, who would open and wind, is keen that such a motion, while not essential, is passed by the House before a General Election. The Government could then campaign on the basis that the House of Commons had approved the Government's decision on Sizewell B.

THE PROCEDURE COMMITTEE'S REPORT ON THE SPEAKER'S RULING ON ZIRCON

You will recall that the House agreed, on a motion by Mr. Benn, that the Procedure Committee should consider the Speaker's ruling on ZIRCON. The Committee's report is just about complete and is likely to be endorsed by the Committee on Tuesday, 12 May. The Lord Privy Seal believes that the report is a useful one in that it upholds the Speaker's action on the attempt to show the ZIRCON film. For this reason, the Lord Privy Seal believes that it is valuable for the Committee to have formally concluded its deliberations, and not to postpone the final meeting of the Committee until later in May.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

NEXT WEEK IS A SHORT ONE, (MONDAY IS A BANK HOLIDAY) AND IS SOMETHING OF A RAG-BAG, THOUGH IT SHOULD SEE THE COMPLETION OF COMMONS STAGES OF THREE GOVERNMENT BILLS, AND THE CONSIDERATION OF LORDS AMENDMENTS TO THE BANKING BILL, AS WELL AS DEALING WITH ONE OR TWO OTHER IMPORTANT BITS OF BUSINESS.

THE REMAINING STAGES OF THE LANDLORD AND TENANT BILL ARE DOWN FOR TUESDAY (THE NUGEE REPORT). THE TWO RSG MOTIONS RELATE TO TEACHERS, AND ARE FOLLOWED BY THE DEBATE ON THE TEACHERS' PAY AND CONDITIONS ORDER WHICH CAN BE EXPECTED TO BE LIVELY. NORTHERN IRELAND AFFAIRS, INCLUDING THE MAJOR DEBATE ON THE SECURITY SITUATION, ARE DOWN FOR WEDNESDAY: THE UNIONISTS ARE EXPECTED TO BE THERE. ON THURSDAY THE CONSIDERATION OF LORDS AMENDMENTS TO THE BANKING BILL AND THE REMAINING STAGES OF THE SAFETY OF PLACES OF SPORT BILL SHOULD NOT CAUSE DIFFICULTIES. THE FINANCIAL SERVICE ORDERS RELATE TO THE SECURITIES AND INVESTMENT BOARD. OPPOSED PRIVATE BUSINESS LATER ON IS LIKELY TO BE LADY PORTER'S CITY OF WESTMINSTER BILL ON LITTER. FRIDAY WILL PROBABLY SEE THE REPORT AND THIRD READING ON EITHER ALLAN STEWART'S LICENSING BILL OR GERALD HOWARTH'S OBSCENITY BILL. HARRY COHEN HAS WON THE BALLOT FOR THE PRIVATE MEMBER'S MOTION ON MONDAY 11TH MAY, NO SUBJECT YET CHOSEN. ANOTHER DEBATE ON SIZEWELL FOLLOWS.

NO STATEMENTS AT PRESENT ARE PLANNED FOR NEXT WEEK. *

THE SECOND DAY OF THE COMMITTEE STAGE OF THE FINANCE BILL (AND TREASURY QUESTIONS) TAKES UP TOMORROW'S BUSINESS. THE LIST OF PRIVATE MEMBERS' BILLS ON FRIDAY IS HEADED BY SIR BRANDON RHYS WILLIAMS' COMPANIES BILL AND SIR EDWARD GARDNER'S HUMAN RIGHTS BILL.

THE DEBATE ON AGRICULTURE ON THURSDAY, MEAN THAT IT IS NEVERTHELESS A SUBSTANTIAL WEEK. ARCHIE KIRKWOOD'S BILL ON ACCESS TO RECORDS IS LIKELY TO COME UP ON FRIDAY: IT LOOKS FOR NOW
AS IF HE WILL ACCEPT THE GOVERNMENT'S PROPOSALS. THERE IS ALSO A POSSIBILITY THAT THE WINSTON CHURCHILL BILL ON THE CROWN PROCEEDINGS ACT WILL BE TAKEN ON THAT DAY.

NO STATEMENTS AT PRESENT PLANNED FOR THAT WEEK. THIS WEEK,
OF COURSE, THERE IS TO BE A STATEMENT ON WESTLAND TOMORROW.

IT HAS BEEN A LONG HAUL SINCE JANUARY, ONE OF THE LONGEST
I BELIEVE. YOU MAY LIKE TO THANK THE BUSINESS MANAGERS

PRIME MINISTER

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

THE LAST WEEK BEFORE THE EASTER RECESS SEES THE REMAINING STAGES OF VARIOUS MINOR BILLS. THE KEY ITEMS ARE THE OPPOSITION DAY ON MONDAY AND THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS DEBATE ON TUESDAY.

THE OPPOSITION HAVE SELECTED "THE GROWING SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC INEQUALITIES IN BRITAIN" FOR MONDAY. MESSRS HATTERSLEY AND MEACHER WILL BE LEADING. THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS DEBATE TAKES PLACE ON TUESDAY AND IS FOLLOWED BY THE SECOND READING OF THE FAMILY LAW REFORM BILL, WHICH IS DESIGNED TO GIVE ILLEGITIMATE CHILDREN THE SAME RIGHTS AS LEGITIMATE ONES. WEDNESDAY SEES THE REMAINING STAGES OF THE NORTHERN IRELAND EMERGENCY PROVISIONS BILL AND MOTIONS ON PRESCRIPTION CHARGES, AND TO DESIGNATE UK MILITARY CENTRES AS INTERNATIONAL NATO HEADQUARTERS. THURSDAY SEES THE REMAINING STAGES OF THE DEBTORS (SCOTLAND) AND THE PILOTAGE BILLS, AND FRIDAY IS SET ASIDE FOR ADJOURNMENT DEBATES.

THERE IS LIKELY TO BE A STATEMENT ON WESTLAND ON MONDAY, THOUGH THE DEFENCE SECRETARY MAY APPARENTLY DELAY THIS UNTIL AFTER HIS VISIT TO YEOVIL EARLIER IN THE WEEK. THERE IS ALSO A POSSIBILITY OF A STATEMENT ON WATER BY THE ENVIRONMENT SECRETARY ON WEDNESDAY.

TOMORROW THE LORD PRIVY SEAL WILL DEAL WITH NEXT WEEK'S BUSINESS AS A STATEMENT, AFTER YOURS. MOD ALSO WANT TO MAKE A STATEMENT ON THE ROYAL ORDNANCE FACTORIES BEFORE THE END OF THE WEEK. THEY WOULD PREFER TO MAKE THIS AS SOON AS POSSIBLE, TO MINIMISE THE RISK OF ONE OF THE TWO BIDDERS DROPPING OUT. LORD TREFGARNE HAS BEEN DISCUSSING THE TIMING WITH THE BUSINESS MANAGERS. IF POSSIBLE, FRIDAY WOULD BE BETTER THAN THURSDAY: THE ROF STATEMENT IS GOOD NEWS AND WOULD STAND MORE CHANCE OF GETTING PROPER COVERAGE ON FRIDAY; TAKING IT ON THURSDAY WOULD ALSO MEAN CUTTING EVEN FURTHER INTO THAT AFTERNOON'S BUSINESS.

THE VOTE ON THE GERALD HOWARTH BILL ON FRIDAY IS LIKELY TO BE AT 2.30. THE CHIEF WHIP IS KEEN TO GET MINISTERS OUT TO SECURE A CLOSURE.

PRIME MINISTER

Cabinet: Parliamentary Affairs

Under Parliamentary Affairs the Lord President will be informing Cabinet of the decision, reached at your meeting on 6 February, that the Local Government Bill should be pruned of the provisions on local authority contracts and political advertising, and introduced in its truncated form in the House of Commons next week.

10 minutes

2. The Lord President will report that the present plan is for the Secretary of State for the Environment to make a statement about this, probably on Thursday next week, when he will take the line agreed at your meeting (ie that the provisions that have been dropped for the time being involved complex drafting which has been delayed by the preparation of the Local Government Finance Bill, and that persevering with them would therefore have imperilled the passage of the rest of the Bill, which includes some essential financial provisions).

3. The financial provisions consist of two to deal with creative accounting devices. The first of these controls so-called "deferred purchase" schemes, and was announced by Mr Ridley on 22 July: the second deals with the so-called "Sheffield Scheme" and was announced by Mr Ridley last week, after discussion in Cabinet. The remaining finance provision is a technical amendment to allow the Education Pool for 1982 to be wound up without risk of legal challenge.

THERE IS AN OPPOSITION DAY ON TUESDAY, WHEN THEY WILL HAVE TO CHOOSE THE ECONOMY AS THE SUBJECT. WEDNESDAY IS ONCE AGAIN THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT FINANCE BILL, AND ON THURSDAY THERE WILL BE A DEBATE ON THE RAF (THE ARMY WAS DEBATED YESTERDAY). THE FIRST PRIVATE MEMBERS BILL FOR FRIDAY IS ON THE AGRICULTURE TRAINING BOARD. BILLS ON AIDS AND UNBORN CHILDREN ARE UNLIKELY TO BE REACHED. THOUGH MONDAY 26TH JANUARY IS DOWN AS AN OPPOSITION DAY, IT IS LIKELY TO BE NEEDED TO WRAP UP THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT FINANCE BILL.

THE CHIEF WHIP UNDERSTANDS THAT THE OPPOSITION FRONT BENCH WILL BE TURNING OUT IN FORCE FOR TUESDAY'S OPPOSITION DAY DEBATE ON THE ECONOMY. HE THINKS IT WOULD BE MOST HELPFUL IF YOU COULD EXPRESS THE HOPE THAT AS MANY CABINET MINISTERS AS POSSIBLE WILL BE ON THE FRONT BENCH FOR MR HATTERSLEY'S OPENING SPEECH. IF THEY CANNOT BE THERE, IT WOULD BE HELPFUL IF JUNIOR MINISTERS COULD BE AVAILABLE INSTEAD.

STATEMENTS

There is only one statement so far planned next week, by the Home Secretary on Tuesday, on the Birmingham bombers case. I understand that Mr. Hurd would prefer not to announce to the Cabinet tomorrow the details of what his statement will contain, and would prefer to refer to it in general terms only. But he will in fact be announcing that he has decided to refer the case to the Court of Appeal. The statement may also cover the other associated cases as well.

Parliamentary Affairs

Next week is a workmanlike one, with one or two particular points of interest. Private Members Motions on Monday will see Dale Campbell-Savours discussing the Wright case. As you know, he has in the past threatened to give out the names of existing members of the security services, and it was thought that he might use this occasion to do so. But we understand that the Opposition have given an assurance, so far as they can, that this will not happen. Clive Soley will be the Opposition spokesman, and David Waddington will be leading for the Government. The list for the Consolidated Fund Bill, also on Monday, contains no similar excitements.

The motion on the supplementary benefit payments and mortgage interest regulations, on Tuesday, should create some interest. John Major gave his statement today. A number of Conservative backbenchers spoke against it, and there seems likely to be quite a few abstentions next Tuesday. Wednesday sees the debate on the Autumn statement. On Thursday there are motions on social security orders, and there may also be a debate on cold weather payments. The House rises on Friday for the Christmas recess.

It is likely to be a busy week in terms of statements. If Transport do not make the announcement on Friday that there will be a public inquiry into the loss of the Derbyshire following the Kowloon Bridge incident, they will do this on Monday instead. Tuesday is likely to see statements being made by Mr Ridley and Mr Edwards on amending the Rate Support Grant legislation to correct a technical fault in it, not yet appreciated outside Government. You will have had an opportunity to speak to the Lord President this evening about this, and to consider whether it should be mentioned tomorrow. The Foreign Secretary may make a statement on Wednesday on the outcome of the Foreign Affairs Council and the Nimrod statement will be on Thursday. There may, in addition, be a statement on Wednesday on AIDS and the distribution of free needles.

BUSINESS NEXT WEEK

Business in the Commons has gone rather well so that the Managers may have two "spare" days next week. One possibility is to make these two days Opposition Days, one for Labour and one for Liberal. There is a good case for this. Next month, pressure in the House (eg if some Bills are taken on the Floor) will be intense so there will be little time available for the Opposition. Hence, the more time the Opposition can be given this month, the better.

The Business Managers have come to no decisions yet. A crucial factor is whether the Opposition would use their days to embarrass the Government over the Peter Wright case.

"Usual channels" soundings of the Labour Chief Whip suggests that the Labour Party would not use their day for matters relating to the Wright case. Their Chief Whip makes the point that they would be kicking through their own goal to make a great issue of the case when Mr. Kinnock is away in the United States.

The Liberals have given a steer that they would use their day for a debate on freedom of information which has, of course, implications for the Wright case. Even so, the Chief Whip may want to suggest to you that the Liberals should be given a day next week. The Home Office have a strong debating team and could put up a good performance in a debate on freedom of information. Government backbenchers could make the point that freedom of information does not imply freedom to break confidences. The risk is, of course, that something will happen in the Wright case just before the debate which would make it more controversial and embarrassing. But if that happened it might be helpful to have a vehicle for getting across the Government's view in the House.

You do not need to come to a decision tonight. The Chief Whip is discussing the matter with the Home Secretary. He will report further tomorrow.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

The two statements on education are down for tomorrow, but there are no firm plans for any statements next week. The House prorogues on Friday, and spends most of the week considering Lords amendments to the various Bills which have recently been before it. You will know of the possible difficulties about the Opposition Day on Wednesday if the Chancellor has to take the lead.

Business in the Lords is still roughly on course. Yesterday, the Government lost a vote on the Housing Planning Bill, dealing with the definition of homelessness, though the implications do not seem to be grave. It will probably make the duty on local authorities rather more difficult to dispatch. The general feeling in the Lords is still that they have been pushed too far.

You may like to be aware of the results of the Shadow Cabinet elections announced today. I attach a note setting these out. Key changes are David Clark and Bryan Gould coming into the Shadow Cabinet, and Robin Cook and Robert Hughes have dropped. Michael Meacher just made it.

Parliamentary Affairs

The key debate in the Commons next week will, of course, be Westland on Wednesday. It is to be taken on a motion for the adjournment.

Monday is an Opposition day, the first half for the Scottish Nationalists and Plaid Cymru. After 10 pm the House will be considering the changes the Home Secretary has proposed on MP's rights of representation, following the introduction of the new visa regime.

On Thursday and Friday the Financial Services Bill comes back to the Commons, so long of course as it is through the Lords in time. The Lord President will be able to report how it is going.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

The House of course returns on Tuesday next week, and kicks off with Questions to the DHSS team (including Mrs. Currie), and then Questions to you. There are one or two interesting bits of business during the week. The concluding stages of the Education Bill, including the new clauses on sex education and freedom of speech, will be taken on Tuesday. The concluding stages of the Sex Discrimination Bill on Wednesday and Thursday, and of the Salmon Bill on Thursday as well. There will also be possible statements on visas (Tuesday), social security uprating (Wednesday) and education (Thursday).

The Lords have already been at it for 2 weeks. They are already grumbling about their workload, and Lord Diamond called yesterday for a better planned programme next session. The Lord President may wish to report.

PARLIAMENTARY BUSINESS

There is no Commons business next week, but the programme for the first week after the Summer adjournment, beginning Tuesday 21st October, includes the conclusion of the remaining stages of the Education Bill (held over to October following yesterday's lengthy debate on corporal punishment); remaining stages of the Sex Discrimination Bill; the Salmon Bill; and the Family Law Bill. The clauses of the Education Bill dealing with political indoctrination, sex education and freedom of speech look like being the only items to lighten up the week. The Lords of course stay for one more week, and come back at the beginning of October, and the Lord President will no doubt wish to comment on that.

You may like to take the opportunity, just before the Commons rise, to congratulate the business managers in the Commons for enabling the House to get up early, and in the Lords for having got through a good deal of very difficult business with so little disruption to the programme.

PRIME MINISTER

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the business note for next week.

As you would expect this is very much a tidying-up week, including the traditional obsequies of the Session. At present there is no sign of any opposition keenness to have a Censure Motion or an economic debate or of forcing the Session into the following week. The main event of the week (unless the Opposition choose something highly political in their Half Opposition Day) is the Lords amendments on the Social Security Bill on Royal Wedding day. There is also the possibility of some rather unpleasant motions on the Consolidated Fund on Thursday.

As usual at this time of year there are a large number of statements as follows:

Thursday 17 July Scottish Tertiary Education Ad. Court
Friday 18 July College of the Air, Department of Employment
(there will probably be a row about this since there is no terribly good reason for the statement being on a Friday)
Monday 21 July Single payments
Tuesday 22 July RSG for England
Wednesday 23 July RSG for Wales and Scotland
Thursday 24 July Second Seven Crossing

The Foreign Office have also been talking about a statement on the Turks and Caicos Islands.

I imagine that Lord Whitelaw will wish to report on the latest state of business in the Lords. You might like to congratulate him in particular on getting so much of the Social Security Bill through in addition to all his other valiant efforts.

BOTH DEBATES WILL ARISE ON OPPOSITION MOTIONS.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the provisional Business Note for next week. This mostly comprises the tidying up of details necessary to achieve a Recess beginning on 25 July. The Lord Privy Seal will announce with the Business Statement that, subject to the progress of business, the House will rise on 25 July. There is one Opposition day and two half-days, and we can be reasonably sure there will be a debate on South Africa before the Recess.

You might like to ask the Lord Privy Seal to give an indication of the business likely to be taken between Monday 21 July and the Recess. I imagine that the main business will be Lords' amendments to the Social Security Bill.

You might also like to ask the Lord Privy Seal to give an indication of the most likely dates for the spill-over and the State Opening. The Lord President will also no doubt wish to inform the Cabinet of the extra week for which the Lords will be sitting in July and the extra three weeks for which they will be sitting in October. I gather that the most likely date for the State Opening is 4 November.

We are getting towards statement season as Departments rush out their news before the Recess. The DOE are planning an oral statement on the litter initiative, now somewhat grandiosely titled UK 2000, on Monday; DHSS are planning to make their Statement on single payments on Thursday 17 July, the day of the Newcastle by-election; that day is also planned for a Scottish statement. The most important statements planned for the following week include the English RSG on Tuesday 22 July, followed by the Welsh RSG on Wednesday 23 July. No doubt there will be demands for a statement from the Foreign Secretary on his return from Southern Africa. Depending on how events go in Northern Ireland next weekend, there may also be a statement from NIO on Monday.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the provisional Business Note for next week which, as you will see, looks a relatively straightforward week with two days taken up by the Finance Bill and one with European business. The additional Private Members' time is on Monday week for which Andy Stewart has won the ballot.

✓ You might like to invite the Chief Whip and the Leader of the House to give some indication of the prospects for the Summer Recess. I understand they are still hoping to get up on the 25th.

✓ The Lord President might also wish to report on the Social Security Bill. It looks now as if Commons consideration of Lords amendments will be a major occasion.

I do not know about any statements next week yet. It is however possible that the Welsh Secretary and the Agriculture Minister may want to make a statement about reducing restrictions on lamb movement.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the Provisional Business Note for next week. At this stage the major subjects for debate have yet to be decided, with 1½ Opposition days and an adjournment debate on Friday on a subject of the Government's choosing. Otherwise the only point worthy of much note is the motion on the Lord Chancellor's salary order which was, of course, last year the vehicle for the expression of backbench dissent on TSRB. It should this year be relatively straightforward.

No statements are scheduled for next week. The DHSS are making their statement on Invalid Care Allowance on Friday this week in order to protect Thursday's Northern Ireland business. It is also worth noting that the DOE are publishing the Widdicombe Report today (Thursday) by Written Answer. Personally I think this is thoroughly bad practice in view of the importance of the Widdicombe Report. But Mr. Ridley is anxious for a low key announcement and for business reasons the Lord Privy Seal and Chief Whip are unwilling to press him.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the provisional Business Note for next week. The principal features are an Opposition Day on Monday and a Foreign Affairs Day on Wednesday which will presumably be dominated by South Africa. As you know, the Opposition have asked for a Statement on South Africa on Monday. There are also three Statements planned for Tuesday: two by DHSS, one on student benefits and the other on supplementary benefit board and lodging payments, and one by DES on the review of student support.

Soc Sec.

The Chief Whip might like to report on progress in the negotiations with the Opposition on the restoration of a half-day for Private Members' Business.

Mr Ridley will raise the latter initiative:

he doesn't want an oral statement.

This must be wrong: either we have confidence in the initiative or we should not be advancing it.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the Business Note for next week. As you will see it is a pretty mundane affair but indicates that the legislative programme is now well underway. A particular point is that there is a debate on Friday on the Government's employment measures which may give the Department of Employment a chance to present this positively rather than simply as a response to Opposition attacks on unemployment.

There are no Statements scheduled for next week as yet. You may however like to ask Lord Whitelaw about the progress of the Gas Bill in the House of Lords after their first all night sitting for six years.

MR. DALYELL'S MOTION

Mr. Dalyell's Motion on the conduct of the Prime Minister is to be taken as the business for Friday, 6 June. The Chief Whip told me this morning that there is a good chance that the business for this day will be lost. Apparently, many Backbenchers will want to speak on the Channel Tunnel Bill Second Reading and Committal Motion on the Thursday, so that Friday's business will be lost. Keeness to speak on the Channel Tunnel Bill arises partly from their interest in that subject and partly with the objective of frustrating Friday's business (so they do not have to stay around to vote at 2.30 on Friday). The Chief Whip is not discouraging any of this!

Cabinet: Parliamentary Affairs

Chernobyl

You may like to ask the Secretary of State for the Environment to report briefly on developments. The news continues to be more reassuring. Monitored radioactivity in the United Kingdom is at low and declining levels and, although we still lack hard information, the news from Chernobyl itself is reasonably reassuring too. The debate in the House went well yesterday, and the number of inquiries to the Department of the Environment and other Government information points is falling sharply. Unless there are any adverse developments, it should be possible to close the emergency technical and inquiry centres by the weekend, and revert to normal departmental arrangements. But the Civil Contingencies Unit will review the position on Friday afternoon.

House of Commons Privileges Committee Report

2. You will wish to invite the Lord President to report on the discussion he has had with the Lord Privy Seal, the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, the Secretary of State for Trade and Industry and the Chief Whip.

3. You will remember that when this topic came up at Cabinet last week you were very anxious that the Government should stand well away from the Privileges Committee Report. You also wanted to ensure that proper thought was given to the advantages of stimulating a wider consideration of Parliamentary privilege.

4. The Lord President's report should meet your wishes on these points. On the vital question of Ministers' voting in the debate he will advise that a free vote is perfectly appropriate. This would be in accordance with precedent and, in particular, would be analogous to the handling of the recent debate on televising House of Commons proceedings. On widening the debate, the Lord Privy Seal (with the strong support of the Chief Whip) intends to canvass the idea that Select Committees should be empowered to conduct deliberations in public. (At present Standing Orders only enable them to take evidence in public.) The Chief Whip is in no doubt that the relevance of recent abuses of privilege will emerge in the debate, and there is no doubt, too, that amendments will be put down to reduce the penalties proposed by the Privileges Committee. In view of the importance of avoiding overt Government involvement, however, no amendments should be tabled directly by the Government.

5. Arrangements on these lines would meet your concerns. Subject to confirming that the Lord Privy Seal is content, you may wish to invite Cabinet to support the Lord President's recommendations.

ROBERT ARMSTRONG

14 May 1986

PRIME MINISTER

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the provisional Business Note which is more provisional than usual this week since the question of a debate on shipbuilding or the north-east has yet to be resolved. The Speaker was going to give an SO10 today but for the convenience of business the Chief Whip agreed to the possibility of a half day some time next week. If the Opposition press it (as they surely will) it would be on Wednesday with the Sex Discrimination Bill shifted to Thursday and the Legal Aid Bill occupying half of Wednesday. This will make next week quite a lively one with the Privileges Committee debate on Tuesday; and both shipbuilding and NIREX on Wednesday.

Statements next week seem limited to (possibly) one on the Calcutt Report. I assume that we shall probably be doing the Review Body Reports by Written Answer on the Thursday.

The Lord President is ready to report on the negotiations on the handling of the Privileges Committee Report which was remitted to him last week. Essentially this will involve a variety of amendments limiting the punishment of the Times reporter and a more or less complete free vote (including Ministers). You will recall that the Chief Whip was also hoping that the wider question of Privilege and Select Committees could be raised.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Much of next week is what was going to be discussed this week, including on Monday the half day censure debate on Sir Keith Joseph by the Liberals and SDP. I understand that Sir Keith is proposing to leave this to Chris Patten, although you will obviously want to vote at seven o'clock.

On Tuesday the Opposition have divided their day into two halves, one on housing, the other on transport. It is perhaps slightly surprising that they have not picked up on today's unemployment figures. The rest of the week is pretty humdrum, the Finance Bill starts its passage on Monday week.

The DHSS are planning to launch their White Paper on primary health care on Monday and there may be a statement on the Agriculture Council on Wednesday after the European Council, which will fix agricultural prices.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the provisional business note for next week. This is likely to be an extremely lively week with the Shops Bill on Monday and the unemployment figures on Wednesday as the political foci. The guillotine motion on the Social Security Bill will probably also provoke a good deal of interest. The Chief Whip will be reporting to you early tomorrow morning on the whipping arrangements for the Shops Bill but I imagine that colleagues are likely to want the Home Secretary to report to Cabinet on the line he is going to take.

We will need to have at the back of our minds the possibility that if the Labour Party do well at Fulham, they may well feel encouraged enough to launch a censure debate or an unemployment debate hoping to draw you in on their Opposition Day on Monday 21 April.

The statements of which I have notice so far are one by the DOE on Thursday (tomorrow) on the Birmingham farrago and, subject to Cabinet, one by DHSS on Wednesday on primary health care.

Attached is the provisional note for the week after the Recess. As you will see we have at last got some Bills out of Committee and the week is entirely taken up with legislation. You might like to be aware that the Business Managers are proposing that the Shops Bill Second Reading should be taken on 14 April.

There are no statements scheduled for that week unless the Department of Health and Social Security get Cabinet clearance for their White Paper on Primary Health Care.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Under this item you may wish to congratulate the Chancellor on the presentation of the Budget and the reception it has had throughout the Parliamentary Party and most of the media.

As you will see from the attached Business Note, the planned business for next week is not exciting, with the exception of the conclusion of the Budget debate on 24 March. On Wednesday there is a debate on the question of Members' representations on immigration cases which, as you will recall, is an issue of considerable Parliamentary interest. The Home Secretary has issued new guidelines which actually amount to very little change from present arrangements.

As far as I am aware no statements are planned for next week, * although it is possible that there may need to be one on British Leyland, depending on the state of negotiations and discussions within the Government.

* DHSS wish to make one on primary health care on 26 March †

PRIME MINISTER

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the Provisional Business Note for next week which continues the trend of dullish weeks. Only the Opposition Day on Wednesday is likely to liven things up, depending on the subject they choose. The following Monday sees the first of the major Bills to come out of Committee - the Gas Bill. The rest of the period before Easter will be absorbed by the Budget Debate plus the usual end of Session formalities, together with possibly a Debate on BL. The Lord Privy Seal is intending to announce that the Easter Adjournment will run until Tuesday 8 April. It is a pity he could not have stretched it one day longer! As things currently stand you will be answering Questions on two consecutive Sitting Days.

As far as Statements are concerned, the principal one of the week will be on NHS Charges by the DHSS, probably on Monday. I gather that they are a little reluctant to do an oral Statement but there is no doubt they will have to. We will need a Statement on Scottish teachers at some stage, and there may be a bid for one this (Thursday) afternoon. But that would eat into a half-day Opposition Day and the Leader of the House will want to push it into next week if at all possible.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the business note for next week. As you will see, next week does not promise to be very much more exciting in Parliamentary terms than this week, featuring debates on Welsh affairs, European Community and the Salmon Bill. There is no indication as yet of the subject which the Opposition have chosen for their half-day on Thursday. I assume that this is for the same reason as last week, ie, that the major legislation is still in Standing Committee.

No notice of any Statements as yet but there will have to be one on NHS charges at some stage.

You may wish to congratulate Lord Whitelaw on having secured the passage of the Shops Bill through the House of Lords with little damage.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the provisional Business Note which, as you will see, is about the dullest week imaginable in Parliamentary terms, or so it seems. The week features ^{the} an annual RAF Debate, a day on Welsh affairs, remaining stages of the Housing (Scotland) Bill, and Motions on the Bishops' Retirement Measure and the Ecclesiastical Fees measure. I gather that the problem is that nearly all the Second Readings are now complete and the Bills in Standing Committee, so we are lying fallow at the moment. The most likely problems will arise from the Rate Capping Order on Monday.

On Statements, there are two from DHSS on Monday: one on the July Uprating and the other on NHS Charges, although DHSS are rather anxious to keep this one a bit quiet for the moment. Once again dependent upon the outcome of Cabinet, there may be a Statement on NIREX.

As you know, Lord Whitelaw will be reporting on nuclear waste under this heading, and Mr. Channon will be reporting on BL.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the business note for next week. The second Opposition Day on Monday 24 may well be replaced by a debate on the RAF. You will note that there is the traditional Public Expenditure Debate on Thursday and ^{on Monday,} the motion for the continuation of the Prevention of Terrorism Act. The Opposition have been voting against this in the last 2 or 3 years and I imagine are likely to do so again on Monday.

No statements are yet scheduled for next week, though if the Cabinet reaches a conclusion on NIREX one will be necessary at some stage.

PRIME MINISTER

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the Business note for next week which, at this stage, does not look like a particularly controversial one. There is a Debate on Monday on the White Paper on the Channel Fixed Link ahead of Wednesday's Treaty signing. The Opposition have yet to announce their subject for Debate on Wednesday, although it may be the Debate on the City which has now been postponed three times. There is a Debate on Roskill on Thursday.

There is no sign of any statements as yet next week, although it is just possible that there may be one on nuclear waste disposal if that long-running saga is ever resolved.

You might, under this heading, like to congratulate Sir Robert Armstrong on his appearance before the Defence Select Committee today. Less pleasantly, there may be fall-out from the Debate on BL today.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS - BUSINESS NOTE

Attached is the Business Note for next week. This is a relatively mundane working week, mostly covering legislation. The Motion on the Rate Support Grant might produce some Shire County discontent although this was relatively muted when it was announced. The Opposition Day is on Thursday and is occupied by debates on Gartcosh and the teachers dispute.

Statements next week include on Monday the Transport Secretary on the Channel Fixed Link; and the Social Services Secretary on the food poisoning outbreak in Wakefield. On Wednesday the Environment Secretary has made a provisional bid for a statement on nuclear waste.

Attached is the Business Note for next week. Additional items are:-

Monday: Statement by Secretary of State for Trade and Industry on Westland (probable).

Tuesday: Statement by the Home Secretary on Roskill.

Wednesday: The Opposition Supply Day will probably be on the City.

Thursday: Statement by the Home Secretary on the Popplewell (Football Violence and Crowd Safety) Report.

Friday: Second Reading on Tom Clarke's Disabled Persons (Consultation and Representation) Bill.
This imposes lots of duties on local health authorities. It is unfortunately popular in the House. So the Government line will be sceptical neutrality with the objective of amending it in Committee.

So a busy week, dominated by fraud and City issues.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the provisional Business Note for the first week back. This is still subject to change to meet the need for the Roskill Report to be published before the Second Reading of the Financial Services Bill. This means, in order to avoid missing a week's Committee stage, the Public Order Bill going on to the first day back together with the statement on Roskill, with the Financial Services Bill Second Reading on the Tuesday. This will mean a heavy day for the Home Secretary on the Monday if that is what happens.

The subject of the Opposition day on Wednesday remains to be decided although they hanker after a debate on fraud which would make that week a little over-weighted on the subject of the City.

The only statement of which we are yet aware is a bid for the Home Secretary on the final Popplewell Report. But that further complicates the pattern of business at the beginning of the week since the Home Office will want it before the Public Order Bill.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the provisional business note for next week which as you will see is a typical last week of Session with 2½ days given over to private members business and the Debate on the Select Committee on Members' Interests which could prove slightly more controversial. The most substantial business of the week is the Second Reading of the Building Societies Bill on Thursday.

It will be quite a busy week for statements with, on current plans, a statement from the Social Services Secretary on the publication of the Social Security White Paper on Monday; one by the Chancellor on the Banking Supervision White Paper on Tuesday; and the judgement in the Nottinghamshire and Bradford RSG cases permitting, one by the Environment Secretary on Wednesday on the 1986/87 RSG settlement.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the Business Note for next week. This is a very lively Parliamentary week with the debate on the Channel Fixed Link on Monday; Second Reading of the Gas Bill on Tuesday; and the Autumn Statement debate on Thursday. I understand that the Opposition day on Wednesday is likely to be offered to the Liberals. The following week is largely occupied by the usual tidying up, adjournment debates and consolidated fund debates. The Recess will be between Friday 20 December and Monday 13 January.

Thursday
The only statement of which I yet have notice is the Foreign Secretary on UNESCO on Monday. But this may well have been discussed at OD.

The Lord President might wish to report the Second Reading of the Shops Bill on which the Government secured a very substantial majority of 56. This has been a bad week for the Bishops!

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the Provisional Business Note for next week. The major legislative event is the Second Reading of the Dockyard Bill on ~~Tuesday~~^{Wednesday}. The rest of the week is relatively routine apart from the Opposition day on ~~Wednesday~~^{Tuesday} for which they have not yet indicated their subject. * The following Monday is provisionally allocated to a debate on the Fixed Channel Link which will provide an opportunity for those with interests in particular projects or alternatively opponents of the Fixed Link such as Kent Members to sound off. As such it will be a fairly pointless occasion but may contribute to reducing the complaints at the Government's refusal to hold a public inquiry.

Under the Parliamentary Affairs item you might wish to have a brief discussion of the outcome of the Northern Ireland debate including the tactics being conducted by the Unionists in relation to resignations from the House.

PRIME MINISTER

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is a business note for next week. The week is dominated by the two-day debate on the Anglo-Irish Agreement and you might wish to devote a little time to the Parliamentary handling of that debate. I assume that you will open on Tuesday and that no one will wind on that day; Tom King will open on Wednesday and Nicholas Scott will wind. The Chief Whip might give some idea of the likely extent of dissidence on the Government Benches. The Northern Ireland Office are proposing that the debate should take place on a straightforward Motion to approve the Agreement.

By comparison the rest of the week is relatively humdrum.

P.O.
Questions

WITH PERMISSION, MR SPEAKER, I SHOULD LIKE TO MAKE A SHORT BUSINESS STATEMENT. THE BUSINESS FOR WEDNESDAY 23 AND THURSDAY 24 OCTOBER WILL NOW BE AS FOLLOWS:

WEDNESDAY 23 OCTOBER OPPOSITION DAY (20TH ALLOTTED DAY). UNTIL ABOUT SEVEN O'CLOCK THERE WILL BE A DEBATE ENTITLED THE CRISIS IN SOUTHERN AFRICA FOLLOWED BY A DEBATE ENTITLED THE NEED FOR AN INDEPENDENT JUDICIAL INQUIRY INTO THE RECENT URBAN DISTURBANCES. BOTH DEBATES WILL ARISE ON OPPOSITION MOTIONS.

MOTION ON THE NURSING HOMES AND NURSING AGENCIES (NORTHERN IRELAND) ORDER.

MOTION ON THE PARLIAMENTARY CONSTITUENCIES (ENGLAND) (MISCELLANEOUS CHANGES) ORDER.

THURSDAY 24 OCTOBER THERE WILL BE A DEBATE ON A MOTION TO TAKE NOTE OF THE OUTSTANDING REPORTS OF THE COMMITTEE OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS TO WHICH THE GOVERNMENT HAS REPLIED.

COMMONS CONSIDERATION OF LORDS AMENDMENTS TO THE WATER (FLUORIDATION) BILL.

REMAINING STAGES OF THE HOUSING BILL (LORDS), THE HOUSING ASSOCIATIONS' BILL (LORDS), THE HOUSING (CONSEQUENTIAL PROVISIONS) BILL (LORDS), THE LANDLORD AND TENANT BILL (LORDS) AND THE WEIGHTS AND MEASURES BILL (LORDS), WHICH ARE ALL CONSOLIDATION MEASURES.

PRIME MINISTER

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the business for the eight days of the spill over which you have already seen. I assume that Mr. Rifkind will have to take the debate on South Africa on the Wednesday, although there may be pressure for the debate to be delayed until after the end of CHOGM. The debate on Urban Disturbances will provide an opportunity for the Home Secretary to press further the point about the ambivalence of Labour councils towards the police. The Chief Whip is likely to want to say something about the progress of the Fluoridation Bill. You will recall that he proposes to run the Fluoridation Bill on the Thursday night with a two-line whip on the rest of the business. If Ivan Lawrence's resistance movement looks like maintaining a filibuster all night he will go for a guillotine probably on Monday. It will be a quiet week for statements with only one by the DHSS on Supplementary Benefit Board and Lodging scheduled.* There will be a question of whether you should make the customary statement on CHOGM on the Monday or Tuesday after your return or whether the Foreign Secretary should make it when he comes back towards the end of next week. If there are major problems at CHOGM I suspect that you will have to make the Government's case. I think you can leave a decision on this until you see how the meeting ^(CHOGM) goes.

(Timothy Flesher)
14 October, 1985

* which I expect to keep quiet.

(RAMACG)

PRIME MINISTER

You may wish to glance at the business for the first week back. The main point of interest is that the Opposition are using their day on the Wednesday for debates on South Africa and on inner city riots. The latter may be something of an own goal given their problems in Tottenham. We are still expecting the House to prorogue on 30 October but there is still the outside chance that the Opposition might go for a Censure Debate in that week.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the Provisional Business Note for the first week of the spill-over which, as you will see, is fairly unexciting at this stage, depending on the subject of the Opposition Day. You are likely to be away for the first two days. The Lord Privy Seal will also be announcing in his Statement that the date of the State Opening will be 6 November.

Under this heading you may wish to mention the narrow Government victory on the debate on the Lord Chancellor's pay last night.

Attached is the provisional Business Note for next week. The 2 main events of the week will be the Immigration Debate on Tuesday and the Social Security Up-rating Debate on Thursday, during which DHSS are likely to announce concessions on limits for residential homes.

There are a substantial number of statements next week: the Home Secretary on the Poppe/Well Interim Report on Tuesday, the same day as the Defence Secretary's on Dockyards. On Wednesday the Scottish Secretary is planning to make a statement on deaths in remand centres. On Thursday there are statements on the English and Welsh RSG's. In addition, Mr Ridley is likely to make a statement on the Okehampton By-pass at some stage.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the business note for next week. As you will see, this is an extremely routine tidying-up week as planned although at this time of year anything could happen. I imagine, however, the Opposition are going to have extreme difficulty in ~~getting~~ keeping their Members at Westminster. If all goes as planned, the business for the days between 22 July and the Recess will be occupied by a full day on immigration; a day on social security orders; and the usual end of session business. The Leader of the House intends to announce tomorrow that the House will rise for the Summer Recess on 26 July.

Only one statement is planned for next week, by Lord Young on deregulation. For the following week, there are likely to be statements on rates; on the interim report by Mr. Justice Popplewell; and on deaths on Scottish prisons.

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

Attached is the provisional Business Note for next week. The major event is the Commons consideration of Lords amendments on the Local Government Bill on Monday; since this will be guillotined from 4.00 p.m. until midnight there will probably be Opposition protests. Government acceptance of the Lords amendment on the ILEA will, however, speed its passage. Tuesday and Wednesday are occupied by the Finance Bill and Thursday by an Estimates Day. On Friday there will be a debate on House of Commons facilities, and in particular on a report by the Services Committee which recommends spending a great deal of money on information technology in the House of Commons. I gather that the Lord Privy Seal will be warning Members about the rise in House of Commons costs. This looks like a pretty routine week unless, in the wake of Brecon, the Opposition decide to ask for a censure debate. This must be a possibility between now and the end of the Session, which looks increasingly like being on 26 July. In this context it is interesting to note that Mr. Kinnock will be out of the country in Africa for the whole of the last week of the Session.

No statements are scheduled for next week unless there is a need for one on the Finance Council. For the following week Lord Young is likely to make a statement on the Deregulation White Paper on Tuesday 16 July.
