

A.P.R.

20 March 1979

Instruments of Monetary Policy

Thank you for your letter of 8th March about the above in reply to Adam's note of March 5th.

I agree with your recommendations and have asked Caroline to get in touch with you and Adam to set up a meeting after the Budget with Gordon Pepper though I will be seeing him before the Budget as well. I will await the preliminary analysis from Adam and George Cardona.

Rt Hon Sir Geoffre Howe OC MP

MHT

Can you please
read these two letters.
Shall I arrange a meeting with you and
Gordon Pepper and Geoffrey Howe after the Budget?

I usually talk to Gordon Pepper
before the Budget.
CS

Also Keith
Conradson talks

18 March

in a memo.
WJ only
Tom Brown
Andrew

16 March 1979

I am writing to acknowledge your letter of March 8th to Mrs Thatcher about instruments of Monetary Policy.

I am going to bring this subject up at the diary meeting on Monday and then I will get in touch with you about a possible meeting with Gordon Pepper.

Yours sincerely,

Miss Caroline Stephens

At Home Sir Geoffrey Howe QC MP