Mr. Arthur Seldon,
Institute of Economic Affairs
London

Dear Arthur,

In the enclosed letter of yesterday I forgot the more important and urgent matter. I feel that it would be most desirable if the excellent and very important German essay by Professor Herbert Giersch (the Director of the Institute für Weltwirtschaft at Kiel) on the manner of exorcising us out of the present depression were as rapidly as possible brought to the attention of the British public. I hope you have got somebody who can at once reliably translate it for you - all I can say is that I wish I could explain the central points as clearly as he has succeeded in doing.

yours ever,

F.A.Hayek
