TOLD: Ronnie Millar.

John Hoskyns

18th Sept.

(15.00)

Prime Minister

Party Conference Speech

Following your speech meeting today, I wondered whether you are now able to indicate how soon you would like another session.

The first available slot in your diary is:

✓ Monday 29th September at 17.45, or 17.30, or

and Thursday 2nd October at 14.00. ✓
15.00 according to Mike.

Unfortunately Jock Bruce-Gardyne is now away on holiday until 6th October. Presumably you would like John Hoskyns and Ronnie Millar to come anyway, but is there anyone else you would like to bring in at this stage?

No - but we need to
to draft.

TOLD John & Ronnie 5.45 - at 5.30 pm
MONDAY 29th Sept.

Party Conference Speech

1. Jock Bruce-Gardyne will attend the lunches on Tuesday 9 and Tuesday 16 but will then be overseas in Portugal.
2. Spoke to Ronnie Millar today and he is not very put out by this information but made the point that it would be most helpful to have John Hoskyns not only to the two lunches but also to the other speech sessions. I have consequently put a memo into the Prime Minister's box. If the answer is yes could he please be invited and Julia, the cook, told to produce an extra meal.
3. I spoke to Jock Bruce-Gardyne's secretary this morning and asked for the draft speech to be sent to this office on Monday afternoon.

SALLY: If this does not arrive, could you ring her at the House and when it does arrive could you see that a copy is sent to Ronnie at Sheffield Terrace. Can the top copy please be put into the Prime Minister's box on Monday evening.

PARTY CONFERENCE SPEECH

I have asked Jock Bruce-Gardyne and Ronnie Millar to come in to discuss the above over lunch on Tuesday 9th and lunch on Tuesday 16th (the lunch will take place in the flat but will be prepared by Julie Doake). Following the meeting on 16th, could you ask the Prime Minister before she goes to Paris on Thursday 18th, how soon after she returns from Greece and Yugoslavia she wants to see them again? The first slot I have got available is 1730 on Monday, 29 September (the day I get back, but the meeting will have to be set up the previous week at least). If the Prime Minister does not wish to see them on 29th, the next available time is 1400 onwards on Thursday 2 October. Having ascertained the answer could you please ring Ronnie on 727 8361 and Jock on one of the following numbers:

Cheshire - 04775213, or
London - 937 6953

It is possible that Jock will be away. Can you also find out who else the Prime Minister would like involved?

I thought you might like to know that the Prime Minister has asked Ronnie Millar to join you for lunch on Tuesday 9 and Tuesday 16 September. We will expect you at about 1 p.m. Although I think you told me that these dates did not suit you, I thought I would also confirm the times the Prime Minister has got available to do her speech:

Monday 29 September, 1700 hours onwards
Thursday 2 October, afternoon and evening
Friday 3 October, all day
Weekend Saturday 3/Sunday 5 October
Monday 6 October, all day
Tuesday 7 October, all day

Jock Bruce-Gardyne, Esq., M.P.
