Dear Mr. Turner

What-a wonderful surprise awaited me when I returned here this evening. Two magnificent volumes of the Falklands Story - and it is a story as well as a campaign. Thank you so much for your kindness in thinking of putting it together in such a perfect way. When I asked for all 'back numbers' at the Press Club - it was almost a 'cri-de coeur' because I just haven't had time to write down my own experiences and I needed a complete record so that I can recall everything.

The more I view it in retrospect, the more astonishing it seems. Another splendid victory for Britain.

Love very good wish.

Yours sincerely
Margaret Thatcher
