AUSTRALIAN HIGH COMMISSION • LONDON

THE HIGH COMMISSIONER

The Hon. Sir Victor Garland, KBE

PRIME MINISTER'S
PERSONAL MESSAGE
SERIAL No. T 141 C/82

2 July 1982

A telegram from my Prime Minister asks me to convey to you the following message:

Begins -

"My dear Margaret,

Since my message yesterday, I have spoken further with Ian Sinclair and we both agree that, rather than your sending a team out here, it would be preferable for him to visit the UK. In London he will be able to see John Nott and, I should hope, yourself, and make a wider range of other contacts.

He will leave here on Wednesday and be able to stay in London for about a week. We shall give the details to your High Commission.

If you have no objection, we shall be making the visit public on Sunday evening here.

Yours sincerely,
(Malcolm Fraser)."

Ends.

R.V. GARLAND

The Rt Hon. Margaret Thatcher, MP,
Prime Minister,
No. 10 Downing Street,
LONDON SW1.
