Shadow Cab. Spoke robustly. The party will fall apart unless opposition constant & robust. The tactical difficulty to do this without breaching unity stance. But it is probable Gov: policy will make this easy. They are already seeking to "hike" £10 bonus to increase in self employed contributions & asking for formal agreement. Clearly Not. Speaker wants advice from us as to treatment of Libs who are asking for a day on the Q.S. Not an embarrassment. Govt are asking for only 5 days on Q.S. Six essential. If Govt want nat: unity they must avoid anti Parliamentary tricks.
