

Personal

9th July, 1981

I reported to the Prime Minister our conversation on Tuesday evening.

Whatever you may think, the Prime Minister certainly values her talks with you; as you would expect, I always report to the Prime Minister on any discussions which you and I have from time to time.

The Prime Minister would welcome a talk with you on Sunday 2nd August. Could you and Pam please arrive at Chequers at 12 noon on that day? Pam and Jane can then walk round the garden, while you, the Prime Minister and I have a talk, before the other guests arrive at 12.30 p.m.

I heard you on the wireless this morning; of course I agree with your analysis of the cause of the present grave disturbances in our Cities.

IAN GOW

The Right Honourable J. Enoch Powell, M.B.E., M.P.
House of Commons
