Dear Mr. Thomas,

Thank-you for your letter which was forwarded from home to my new Dartford address.
(I am living in the constituency.)

I have contacted our chairman about the matter and hope you will hear from him officially, almost immediately. The financial arrangements are that I contribute nothing to constituency funds. All election expenses are paid by the constituency.

I will remind the chairman again in a few days time to make quite certain you get the information from the proper quarters, quite apart from anything else. I don't want to miss the party conference!

My sincere apologies for the inconvenience this has caused.

Yours sincerely,

Margaret A. Roberts.

Thank you very much for your letter of the 21st July. I am very glad to hear that all is about to be well. I am most anxious for you not to miss any of the help and free literature which can only go from this office to candidates passed by the Committee.

Best wishes

J. P. L. Thomas
