Dear Margaret:

You were most gracious to receive me at Chequers and to be so generous with your time and ideas. I have now completed my round of visits and had a good session with President Reagan last Saturday. He was glad to have your views available to him as he gathers his own thoughts together preparatory to the Versailles meeting.

I am such an admirer of you and your country that I always delight in the chance to visit England. This time it was a special treat for me since I did get a chance to come to Chequers again. Perhaps you can imagine what a thrill it is for me to drive up to the front entrance of that historic estate to see a smiling Prime Minister in the doorway.

With my thanks and my admiration.

Sincerely yours,

George P. Shultz

Margaret Thatcher, M.P.
