

PRIME MINISTER

I have written a note to Gordon Reece about coming over to London to help with the Party Political Broadcast on 8 July. What exactly do you want him to do? Do you want him to produce it or just be there?

E.S.

*Be there. The RBC will have to do it. We can't afford anyone else!

From the Private Secretary

Dear Gordon,

The Prime Minister is going to do a party political broadcast on Wednesday, 8 July, with a possible recording on Tuesday, 7th. She has particularly asked if you could see your way to being in London at that time.

This is not an April Fool, and no regrets accepted! Let me know the date and time of your arrival please. She will be in Warwickshire on Monday, 6th, but I think you should definitely be on parade and refreshed by first thing on Tuesday, 7th.

Please ring to confirm that you have received this letter.

Yours sincerely,
Carole Stephens

Gordon Reece, Esq.

I do not wish to read about this in the newspapers
- if I do, I will know it is you hat has leaked it.
