

15 May 1983

On my last visit to London at the end of March I briefly reported to the Foreign Office by telephone that my letter to The Times on February 17 had led to La Prensa sending a journalist to interview me. I have now at last received a copy of that interview, published in Siete Dias (which I imagine is some weekly supplement of La Prensa which I enclose because you might wish to have it translated. I also enclose xerox copies of some indignant letters concerning it which I received from the Argentine and which you might care to pass on to the Foreign Office.
