Dear Mr. Hare,

Thank-you very much for your letter of 27th August.

Having unexpectedly produced twins - we had no idea there were two of them until the day they were born - I think I had better not consider a candidature for at least six months. The household needs considerable re-organisation and a reliable nurse must be found before I can feel free to pursue such other activities with the necessary fervour.

Yours sincerely

Raymond H. Thatcher.

Dear Mrs. Thatcher,

Mr. Hare is away from the office and I am therefore writing to thank you for your letter of 2nd September, which he will, of course, see on his return.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary
to Mr. John Hare, M.P.

I have just seen your letter of the 2nd September on my return from holiday.

I will arrange to keep your name in cold storage for the time being. Perhaps you will let me know when you would like to come onto the active list of candidates again.
