

10 DOWNING STREET

Prime Minister

CHRISTOPHER TUGENDHAT

1. I have reported to you on his speech to our Finance Committee last evening.
2. The meeting was well attended, and although I was not present for the Question session, I understand that Christopher made a very favourable impression.
3. Later in the evening, Bill Clark, who had had a drink with Christopher afterwards, told me that Christopher would like to be re-appointed for a further term, when his present appointment expires on 31st December (you had deduced this already from the tone of his speech!)
