Dear Prime Minister,

Thank you most sincerely for dinner last night. I think it was most kind of you entertain the Whips and we all now feel very much in your debt and determined to repay your hospitality as soon as possible.

I hope you enjoy Wellington [and Lord Lonsdale's salver] and that you are successful in your quest for pictures for No 10. More seriously I do hope that you do get a chance of a rest when the House rises. Sometimes we have night-mares as to what would happen if we were to lose you

Yours Sincerely

David Waddington
