May 1979

"Dear Prime Minister,

I have received the message you so kindly sent to me on the occasion of General Dozier's liberation and wish to say how much I have appreciated it, in the same measure that I have valued the statements you made in the House of Commons on the matter.

During this distressing episode, which has seen us engaged in fighting one of the gravest challenge in our recent history, the support and solidarity offered by the friendly people of Britain has been of great comfort to us.

My most cordial and friendly regards,

Giovanni Spadolini."
