

Extract from memo Miss Harris to Mr. Kaberry 15.7.58

FINCHLEY

A straight vote between Mrs. Thatcher and Langton gave Mrs. Thatcher a small majority of 46 to 43. Unfortunately there were a handful of people who refused to give a unanimous vote at the end. If this should lead to any trouble in the future I feel quite sure Mrs. Thatcher will be able to overcome it. She really put up a first-class show and deserved a better margin. They are to adopt straight away and have decided on the 31st July.
