

10 DOWNING STREET

THE PRIME MINISTER

28 September, 1982.

Dear Premier Zhao

I write to thank you most warmly for all you did to make my visit to China so interesting and useful. My husband and I were most grateful for all the generous hospitality which we received in Peking, Shanghai and Canton. May I thank you too for the delightful gifts which you presented to us.

I believe that my visit, and my talks with Chairman Deng Xiaoping and yourself, have opened up many possibilities for Anglo-Chinese co-operation, and clarified the problems which need to be resolved. I shall continue to pay particular attention to relations between our two countries.

Yours sincerely
Margaret Thatcher

His Excellency Premier Zhao Ziyang
