

10 DOWNING STREET

THE PRIME MINISTER

21 June 1979

My dear Archbishop,

Thank you for your letter of 5 June about Mr. John Corrie's proposed Bill on Abortion.

Mr. Corrie has now announced his intention of introducing a Bill to amend the Abortion Act 1967, and his place in the ballot for Private Members' Bills this year means that he will certainly have an opportunity of making progress with it if it is handled in accordance with the wishes of Parliament. As you will know, we do not impose Party discipline on matters such as this, so that the reception of his Bill will be a matter for individual Members. A great deal will depend on the exact terms of the Bill, but I myself welcome the fact that the House will have an opportunity soon to discuss the issue. I know the extent of the concern about it.

Yours sincerely
Margaret Thatcher

The Most Reverend Thomas Winning, Archbishop of Glasgow
