

THE WHITE HOUSE

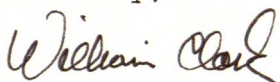

WASHINGTON

Dear Madame Prime Minister:

Now that I am back home again I hasten to thank you and Mr. Thatcher for including me in the delightful luncheon you hosted in President Reagan's honor during our all too brief stay in the United Kingdom last week. That event provided a very pleasant respite in our travels and is one that I shall long and agreeably remember.

It goes without saying that I enjoyed meeting you again and much appreciate the opportunity our two sides had for such extensive and beneficial conversation.

Sincerely,

William P. Clark
Assistant to the President
for National Security Affairs

The Right Honorable
Margaret Thatcher, M.P.
Prime Minister
London
