PARTY CONF.

286

P.O.

cc: I. Gow

4 August 1980

I am the bearer of good tidings! The Prime Minister would like you to do her Party Conference speech .....

There is no point in arranging a meeting before the House rises, as the adrenalin never flows, as you well know, until the eleventh hour, but if you could be thinking during the Recess, she would be extremely grateful. Please give me a ring about meetings. I would have thought that the first one could take place about the middle of September, depending on your own plans.
