

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

October 25, 1979

The Right Honourable Margaret Thatcher, M.P.
Prime Minister
10, Downing Street

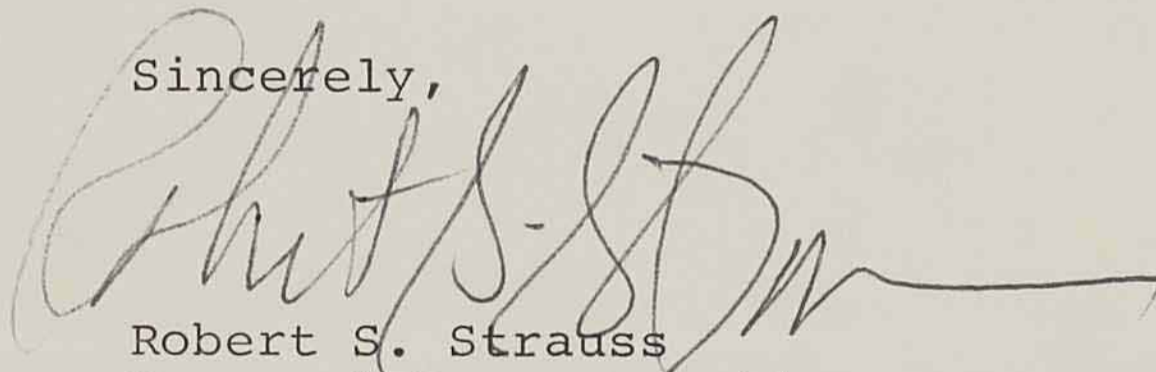

Dear Prime Minister:

I want to express my thanks for the wonderful cooperation we are receiving here in London. I am very much looking forward to meeting with Lord Carrington tomorrow morning to brief him on the Middle East situation.

I haven't had the pleasure of seeing you since the dinner at Henry Kissinger's during your last visit. But I look forward to seeing you during your forthcoming visit, should your schedule permit.

I follow with admiration your steadfast determination and progress.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Robert S. Strauss", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.
