KJ/SMC

John Nott Esq., MP.

6th August 1978

I sat next to Siegmund Warburg at lunch yesterday. He has a very high respect for you.

But his view of Bremen is that we should take part in the negotiations, killing it from within if need be.

It seems to me that it might be helpful if you and I were to meet him for a talk. I would limit myself to listening. He would welcome such an occasion - and we could then report to Margaret and Geoffrey, to both of whom I am copying this note.

If you have no objection, perhaps your secretary would let Sue Clarke (at 828-1176) know, and then Sue can ~~then~~ try to arrange something that will suit all three of us.
