

Item removed for reason of intellectual property

Letter from Hector Laing to Derek
Rayner
23 July 1979

Summary

Brief letter from Laing saying that following budget his company, United Biscuits, had cancelled all perks except for company cars "which we may or may not be able to deal with at a later date".

In cancelling contract with University Tailors for suit purchase and cleaning was told that nationalised industries had just renewed theirs and that their top managers had a £1000 p.a. allowance (against £200 for United Biscuits).