BUCKS

It was with great concern that I learned last night of the decision of the Court of Appeal and the House to extend British law, jurisdiction administration to occupied Syrian territory with the same effect.

~~As the Foreign Minister of the U. N. said today~~
Such an extension is contrary to international law, and therefore invalid in our eyes.

~~As the President.~~ The inadmissibility of the aggravation of territory by war is enshrined in U. N. Resolution 242

That same resolution was made the cornerstone of the long David records ~~by the committee signed in 1874~~ as said or nearly as Sept. 1874, by Rev. Dr. White Pres. of Univ. President I. C. White for White Dr. White for the Underwriter.

∴ I say with the 10,000 v. period that that letter now is brought to the Rev. Dr. White see.
