

Devolution

(38)

7 December 1976

It was very kind of you indeed to send me some notes on the Scotland and Wales Bill. Your comments were very helpful. It is a thoroughly bad Bill which will add further wasteful layers of bureaucracy to an already overburdened system. As you know, the Shadow Cabinet is determined to oppose it right from the start.

I found our recent dinner both informative and relaxing and hope that if you have any further observations on constitutional matters, you won't hesitate to contact me. Meanwhile, I am grateful for what you have already done.

With best wishes,

Professor D.C.M. Yardley
