THE PRIME MINISTER

20 October 1980

Dear Lord Caccia,

Thank you so much for your letter of 14 October about your visit to the United States. It was very good of you to take the trouble to write.

Your message was very encouraging. We shall go through a difficult time in the coming months and there will be many faint-hearted.

I was interested in your comments on the U.S. clubs. It would be rash

The Lord Caccia, G.C.M.G., G.C.V.O. to prophesy

All good wishes,

Yours sincerely
Margaret Thatcher. JS
