

PRESS LINE

The two sides had a very good exchange of views on the ideas which Mr. Haig brought with him on his return to London.

Some progress was made, but major difficulties remain. Mr. Haig is now going back to Buenos Aires for further talks. He is leaving at once because time is running out and the situation is so tense.

In the meantime the maritime exclusion zone remains in force and the task force continues on course.

PRESS LINE

As Mr. Haig said on his arrival, he brought certain ideas with him.

We had a full discussion on these, and some progress has been made. But ^{very substantial} ~~considerable~~ difficulties ^{remain} ~~have yet~~ ^{Time is getting short} ~~to be resolved,~~ and Mr. Haig is going back to Buenos Aires straight away for further talks.

[In the meantime the maritime exclusion zone remains in force and the task force continues on course.]