

10 DOWNING STREET

June 14th 1981.

P.M.: Draft notes on No 10 paper!

Telephone call 9pm:

On a point of order after the 10pm vote in the House of Commons the PM gave the information in these handwritten notes. They were written in her room at the H.C immediately before going into the chamber.

Waters connection: from Walters (told by Frank Cooper).

Notes - prior to end of part of order

10 DOWNING STREET

THE PRIME MINISTER

~~Head for C. L.~~
~~Admiral Fisher~~

① Head for Northwood

Gen. Rose pushed forward <sup>②</sup> after successful attacks last night:

The Argentines
③ ~~is~~ very reticent.

~~3rd Commonwealth Brigade~~
with Welsh Guards

10 DOWNING STREET

THE PRIME MINISTER

2

Amfours

received outline of Port Stanley.

Large nos. of Argentine soldiers thrown down their weapons.

They are reported to be flying white flags, flying — over Port Stanley.

~~General Moore talking~~

10 DOWNING STREET

THE PRIME MINISTER

3.

~~With the Commander of the Cavalry~~

Our troops ordered not to give up their self-defence.

~~Early steps of negotiation in progress~~

Objct. - to gain total surrender of Falklands

10 DOWNING STREET

THE PRIME MINISTER

4
Conclusions from Intelligence

Rendered ordered to leave me and rejoice.

10 DOWNING STREET

THE PRIME MINISTER

Here negotiations end in rejection of Falklands.

Forer have fought bold have battle

10 DOWNING STREET

THE PRIME MINISTER

Hope - resolutions will be completed another. will - leading

HOUSE OF COMMONS
LONDON SW1A 0AA

Talks are <sup>now</sup> in progress at between General on D.C. Brigadier Walker Pender and ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~Joint~~ ~~Command~~ (General Pender) about the surrender of the Myer's Force on East & West Falklands.
I will now

HOUSE OF COMMONS
LONDON SW1A 0AA

General Buxton has agreed to surrender his troops on both to W. Rathland.

The letters are proceeding on the details.

Our forces have fought a bold brave battle

HOUSE OF COMMONS
LONDON SW1A 0AA

in a voluntary line
Good luck,

I will report further to the House to-morrow

HOUSE OF COMMONS
LONDON SW1A 0AA

1
May 1 from the House the brief information about the Bill of the Falklands.

After successful attempts last night General Howe decided to press forward

The Argentineans retreated.

HOUSE OF COMMONS
LONDON SW1A 0AA

21

Our forces received the Outcasts of Port Stanley.

Large nos. of Argentine Soldiers threw down their weapons. They are reported to be flying white flags
over Port Stanley.

HOUSE OF COMMONS
LONDON SW1A 0AA

3

Our hopes have been Ordered not to fire except in self-defence

4

HOUSE OF COMMONS
LONDON SW1A 0AA

Talks are now in progress between General Areneder and our Deputy Commander, Brigadier WATKERS.
WATKERS about the remains of the Argentine Force on East West Falklands

5,

HOUSE OF COMMONS
LONDON SW1A 0AA

I will report further to the House to-morrow