

Questions formulated by KJ after listening and reading

- ✓ 1. Money supply: implications - bankruptcies; unemployment - and possible mitigations of both.
- ✓ 2. Regional policies.
- ✓ 3. Definition of unemployed - John Wood's paper.
- ✓ 4. Mobility.
- ✓ 5. Rented housing.
6. Government industrial strategy and intervention
? in France, Germany, Holland, Sweden.
7. Interventionism (a) case histories in UK recently and what happened in each case afterwards:
(b) are there justified exceptions to a no-intervention rule?
(c) how to put the case against intervention.
8. Redundancy arrangements: do they need altering?
can we learn from other countries?
9. [?] Education as it affects the attitude to work in general and the attitude to a free economy in particular.
10. Entry to the work force.
11. Training.
12. Comparative standard of living: quality of life: and social services.
(graphic as well) ?

Government spending

Social welfare

Macroeconomics of govt (monetary)

Monopoly + competition

Pollution, etc.

13. Capital acquisition methods: and independence.

14. Freedom of choice - welfare?

15. Distribution of wealth (graphic as well)

16. ~~D~~embourgeoisment in the different countries.

17. Shopfloor ^{is)}intimation and methods of exposing it.

18. Job satisfaction:

✓ scale: de-merging: de-institutionalisation:
 humanisation: human code of take-over:
 sense of belonging.

See Eugene White

19. Taint on profit from property profits and possibly from asset-stripping, etc.

RH

Major issues omitted from preliminary list of Questions

Reduction of government spending and taxation:
subsidies to private and nationalised industries;
staffing of bureaux;
indiscriminate welfare in cash and kind: the humanity of selectivity.

Machinery of government:
policy formation and implementation;
introduction of competition;
independent 'second opinions' for Ministers.

Nationalised industries and 'public' services:
removal of monopoly barriers to entry;
sale or distribution of shares in state industries;
pricing/competitive tendering for central/local government services (refuse collecting, etc).

Monopoly and competition policy:
extent to which 'market power' of monopolies, etc, is product of government protection/licensing, etc;
distinction between anti-monopoly policy and enforcement of competition by removing obstacles.

Agricultural policy: marketing boards, etc.

Common Market: harmonisation, etc.

Pollution: use of pricing to bring private and social product into closer correspondence.

Mobility: incidence of costs on (1) employee (2) employer (3) government.

Choice in welfare: encouragement of private welfare as method of enlarging choice and attracting more resources into welfare sector.

Concentration of wealth:
defective official statistics on the dead;
urgency of up-to-date survey of the living;
tax reform to encourage private giving/charity/philanthropy within families, to private institutions, by companies.

Freedom of choice for the wage-earner:
in education) experiments in vouchers medical care) (Alum Rock, California)

The morality of the market: the 'politicisation' of the economy as the (less preferred) alternative to the market economy.

Denationalisation by (1) law (2) innovation (3) imports (4) attrition.

Experimentation in social policy.

Major issues omitted from KJ's preliminary list of Questions

Reduction of government spending and taxation:

subsidies to private & nationalised industries;
staffing of bureaux;
indiscriminate welfare in cash and kind.

Machinery of government: policy formation & implementation.

Nationalised industries and "public" services:

removal of monopoly barriers to entry;
sale or distribution of shares in state industries;
pricing/competitive tendering for central/local government services (refuse collecting, etc).

Monopoly and competition policy:

extent to which "market power" of monopolies, etc,
is product of government protection/licensing, etc;
distinction between anti-monopoly policy and enforcement of competition by removing obstacles.

Agricultural policy: marketing boards, etc.

Common market: harmonisation, etc.

Pollution: use of pricing to bring private and social product into closer correspondence.

Choice in welfare: encouragement of private welfare as method of enlarging choice and attracting more resources into welfare sector.

As addition in green

Major issues omitted from ~~titles~~ preliminary list of Questions.

Reduction of government spending and taxation:

- subsidies to private & nationalised industries;
- staffing of bureaux;
- indiscriminate welfare in cash and kind: the humanity of selectivity

Machinery of government: policy formation & implementation;

Nationalised industries and "public" services: introduction of competition independence "second opinions" for ministers.

- removal of monopoly barriers to entry;
- sale or distribution of shares in state industries;
- pricing/competitive tendering for central/local government services (refuse collecting, etc).

Monopoly and competition policy:

- extent to which "market power" of monopolies, etc, is product of government protection/licensing, etc;
- distinction between anti-monopoly policy and enforcement of competition by removing obstacles.

Agricultural policy: marketing boards, etc.

Common market: harmonisation, etc.

Pollution: use of pricing to bring private and social product into closer correspondence.

Mobility: incidence of costs on (1) employer (2) employee (3) government.

Choice in welfare: encouragement of private welfare as method of enlarging choice and attracting more resources into welfare sector.

Concentration of wealth: defective and official statistics; frequency of up-to-date survey of the living; the report to private and giving charity; philanthropy with its franchises, its private institutions, its compulsion

Freedom of choice for the wage-earner; in education } experiment in medical care vouchers (Blum Rock, California)

The morality of the market: the politicisation of an economy as the (less preferred) alternative to the market economy

Debureaucratisation by (1) law (2) innovation (3) imports (4) attrition.
Experimentation in social policy