10 DOWNING STREET

THE PRIME MINISTER

23 June 1981

Dear Mr. Bleazard,

Sir Walter Clegg forwarded to me the copy of "The Mushroom Cookbook" which you so kindly sent through him. You may already have heard from Sir Walter how delighted I was to receive this, but I wanted to send a note to you personally to thank you. My job does not leave very much time for cooking, but we try to run 10 Downing Street as economically as possible, and I therefore have no full-time domestic staff. Your book covers just the kind of interesting snacks I like to get for myself, and I shall enjoy browsing in it.

Yours sincerely
Margaret Thatcher

Mr. Bleazard
