THE PRIME MINISTER

19th May 1989

Dear Ronni,

I should just like to thank you, as always, for your enormous help with my speech to the Scottish Party Conference last week. It was very good of you to give up so much time, and your contribution was invaluable. Indeed, it was widely remarked that the humour contained within the speech played a major part in its success.

I very much hope that you will be able to help us with the Women's speech which I am afraid is all too soon, and I know John Whittingdale will be contacting you about this shortly.

*Yours ever
Margaret*

Sir Ronald Millar
