

10 DOWNING STREET

THE PRIME MINISTER

11 June 1979

My dear Prime Minister,

I was very glad indeed to have the opportunity of renewing our acquaintance during my visit to Paris, at President Giscard's invitation, on Tuesday. I greatly enjoyed our discussions and I know that Peter Carrington, too, found them of the greatest value. Thank you for helping to make a day, which was, I think, of considerable significance for both our countries, so enjoyable for me personally. I am sure that France and the United Kingdom will grow still closer to one another in the years ahead and that our friendship will deepen: I certainly intend to do all I can to bring this about.

With every best wish,

Yours sincerely,

Raymond Barre
