

1922 COMMITTEE
7/1/1920.

200 MEMBERS
PRESENT.

HOUSE OF COMMONS
LONDON SW1A 0AA

BILL CLARK - V.C.

SIM PRICH.

1. We all have to live with the superiority of the fact.
2. What would be the result for our country if we fail, this time, to get it right.
3. Calmness and courage are required.
4. ? If we go too far now, at get it wrong, it may be impossible to get the Union under proper democratic control.
5. We shall need to keep moderate numbers of Trade Unions on our side
6. We must not show the moderates into the arms of extremists
7. EMPLOYMENT BILL

a, look for at least heading

b, Some said mention of a Bill -
some said name of a Bill.

2) Must try to keep things quiet
at Kerport Down.

f) We have avoided conflict apart from
STEEL.

1g) Very dangerous if we decided to alter the Bill because of a single STRIKE.

2) Demand for instant action: would have frustrated.

iii) If we had passed a Bill through there would have been a violent reaction from Scargill.

HOUSE OF COMMONS
LONDON SW1A 0AA

7. Independent Steel Patrons said they needed more time to consider on projects. We were right to allow time to consult.

8. PICKERING

a. Very tough about pitches - on PLACE OF WORK ONLY

LAW ON IMMUNITIES GOES TOO FAR AT PRESENT
THAT IS WHY WE WILL PRODUCE OUR NEW CONSULTATIVE PAPER.

HOUSE OF COMMONS
LONDON SW1A 0AA

11. Will not get interested resolution might just of the law. We must carry the nation with us. Have to win hearts and minds of people. This is a definite and dangerous task.

12. We have built up a vast number of Coventry Trade Unions. We must hold them with us, and not drive them back to extremists. Can't change workers class solidarity in T.U. LO-7-12-77

13. 1973/74 I favour a steady firm policy
with the unions. I am trying to steer a middle course.

14. I don't believe we have to have one Bill only. We may need another in 1972 or 3 years time

HOUSE OF COMMONS
LONDON SW1A 0AA

15. What happens now will decide how safe
vote at the next C.E.

that if the Bill had been law, the steel studs would not have spread to the Pointe Lecter. Do he right?

Sending pilots to geological dangerous.

£11m in Union Funds - but no
calculations to dependants.

Tim I did not say that the studs would not have spread - but that pressure would have been different. Pressure is more important than BEARING.

Difficult decision about blasting.

B2CC 7(a), sent out law a message of Bill to, Puller will see the Bill is not effective.
