

P.
From: The Rt. Hon. Sir Keith Joseph Bt. M.P.

ES/1001

29th October, 1976

During a recent conversation with a very experienced well-wisher it was suggested that we should abolish the Price Commission on entering office but at the same time take action to strengthen the Monopolies Commission and move a minority of the Price Commission staff over to the latter.

We should be seen to enforce competition and should require the Monopolies Commission to give much quicker reports, in months rather than years. It was suggested that there would be a very suitable early reference.

The Rt. Hon. Sir Geoffrey Howe QC, MP,
House of Commons,

C.C. Mrs. Thatcher MP

Mrs Thatcher

Box

with compliments

JK

From THE RT. HON. SIR KEITH JOSEPH, BT., M.P.

2 letters to read Frank
 the address missing?
 ref. 1.3.74

May 1

HOUSE OF COMMONS
 LONDON SW1A 0AA