

10 DOWNING STREET

THE PRIME MINISTER

3.
14th July 1980.

Dear Lady Armstrong,

We were so very shocked to hear of Lord Armstrong's sudden death. To many of us, he represented one of the pillars of stability. So long as he was there, all would be well. He seemed to have all the virtues in abundance, intelligence, loyalty, dedication, vigour and kindness.

Your distress and loss will indeed be great. We feel for you and think of you at this time.

Yours sincerely

Raymond Stetson
