My Dear Margaret,

I am terribly shocked to learn that a letter bomb exploded in No. 10 Downing Street yesterday. I want you to know that the Zambian people join the British people in condemning this wanton, cowardly and reckless action.

We sympathise with the person whom the bomb injured and pray for his quick recovery.

Please accept my best wishes for your personal good health and continued prosperity of the British people.

Yours sincerely,

Kaunda

Kenneth D. Kaunda
