THE PRIME MINISTER

My dear Duke,

You will perhaps have heard that, after consulting your Librarian and Curator, it was decided that the portrait of the First Duke by James Ward would in fact be the most suitable for No.10. It is now hanging in the Blue Drawing Room here and looks well in that room.

I am so glad to have this portrait of your distinguished ancestor in the house, and am most grateful to you for lending it to us.

All best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Raymond Mollath
