

File
CONFIDENTIAL ECLIPSE

Sub

8 September 1982

I understand that when the Prime Minister was at Balmoral last weekend, The Queen Mother enquired after Sir Nicholas Henderson. The Prime Minister offered to make available his recent despatch, on his departure from Washington, about the Falklands crisis. I enclose a copy of this despatch, together with an earlier despatch written by Sir Nicholas shortly before he left Paris.

A. J. COLES

Sir Martin Gilliat, GCVO, MBE