You asked me to set down my view on priorities over the immediate future. Here is my suggested list.

1. Common Ground: Draft for a speech on the Common Ground - for delivery in two to three weeks from now.
2. Article for The Alternative to reach them by the end of November and therefore to be in my hands at the beginning of the last week in November.
3. The Stockton Lecture for delivery in mid-January - draft in my hands by end December.
4. Marx, Morals and the Market - to include the main contents of the CPC lecture - by end January for CPS publication, and aimed to get into university bookshops.
5. Article for New Statesman
6. The next cycle of speeches.
