Boring Day.

Dear George,

Your Christmas gift was a lovely surprise; something we have always wanted but until now have never had. The two silver dogs looked marvellous on our Christmas table - we are so grateful to you.

We thought about you on Christmas day - particularly during the Queen's broadcast. I thought it the best she had ever done. Perhaps it was the theme that appealed and also that she was the perfect person to say it. She spoke of what her grandparents had done for her and for our generation and how we must repay their endeavours by our own efforts for those whose lives are being shaped now.

I wonder if we are doing that in to-day's Parliament. Somehow I doubt it. It seldom touches the nation's deepest needs.

Have a wonderful holiday and come back refreshed for the New Year.
Yours ever
Denis & Margaret
