

MR. LEE KUAN YEW

The Prime Minister met Mr. Lee Kuan Yew for a tête-à-tête discussion at midday today at No. 10, followed by a working lunch at which the Home Secretary, the Secretary of State for Trade and the Minister of State, FCC (Mr. Peter Blaker) were also present.

During their meeting, the Prime Minister and Mr. Lee Kuan Yew discussed the situation in South East Asia, including the problems of Indo-Chinese refugees. They also discussed the situation in Southern Africa and the forthcoming Heads of Government meeting in Lusaka.

Mr. Lee Kuan Yew left Downing Street just after 2.30 p.m.