PRESS RELEASE

RELEASE TIME: 0001, November 3rd, 1979

1109/79

The third edition of Democrat, newspaper of the Young Conservatives, will be published on Saturday.

Its Editorial, written by National Chairman, Bob Hughes, is highly critical of the way in which Local Authorities are making their cuts, it says:

"If Local Councillors cannot show more imagination, then they are liable to face the most unkind cut of all - defeat at the next election".

In a new regular feature, youngest Tory MP, Steve Dorrell comments on the economy and trade unions, calling on the Government to adopt a wages policy.

"Some will argue that the Government has no need or even ability, to take the lead in wage negotiations. That argument is quite clearly absurd."

He goes on to say

"The Government is the largest single employer in the economy and must be closely involved in all wage negotiations."

THE YOUNG CONSERVATIVE NEWSPAPER

Front page feature of Democrat, concentrates on Trevor Skeet's Youth and Community Bill which will have its second reading in the House of Commons on the 9th November. The Bill, the fourth of its kind to be put before the House, seeks to encourage greater participation and involvement by young people in the community. It also looks at the area of housing, for young single homeless people which upto now has been ignored by legislation.
