

10 DOWNING STREET

THE PRIME MINISTER

10th November 1980

Dear Mrs. Hollison,

A note to say thank you for a truly delightful luncheon party yesterday.

The day itself is very special, It unites the nation in worship and thanksgiving, in remembrance, and in love of country. We owe so much to the Bishop who is wonderful not only in his pastoral duties, but in leading the nation on ceremonial occasions. And all with such a touching humility and warmth.

To follow such an occasion with lunch and the companionship of those who have played prominent parts is a memory to cherish.

And you do it all so perfectly and sweetly. Friendliness prevails the house and we all come away appreciating the real joys of living

Sincerely Yours,

Margaret Helton
