

HOUSE OF COMMONS
LONDON SW1A 0AA

For Diary

2-1 October 1976

My dear Quentin,

It is difficult to resist the temptation to read your book straight away - but resist it I must because I have more work to do before resorting to my own wishes.

I know it - will contain the distillation of your own philosophies and experience and that will seem like "realms of gold" to me.

Perhaps you will never quite

I know what a power of strength and inspiration you are to those of us who believe that ideals and ideas are worth fighting for and that the best must surely triumph.

Thank you very much for the book and especially for the inspiration.

Yours ever

Rogers
