Your Excellency,

My Government, anxious to maintain the relations of friendship and good understanding which exist between our two countries, has selected Mr Louis Claude Obeegadoo to be the High Commissioner of Mauritius to the United Kingdom, with residence in London.

The personal qualities of Mr Obeegadoo assure us that he is eminently worthy of the important mission for which he has been selected, and that he will discharge the duties of his High Office in a manner that will fully merit your Government's approbation and esteem.

My Government has every confidence in commending Mr Obeegadoo to you and I trust that you will place your full and complete trust in all that he will communicate to you in my name.

Anerood Jugnauth
Prime Minister

Her Excellency Mrs Margaret Thatcher
Prime Minister of the United Kingdom
