

Admiralty House,

23rd June, 1952.

Mrs. Thatcher

Mrs. Thatcher, who before her marriage was our candidate Margaret Roberts, is coming to see you - so she tells me.

She was a first-class candidate, as Miss Beryl Cook will tell you, and cannot keep away from politics. She deserves every kind of help but I suppose, at any time, there may be the usual nursery difficulties.

Many thanks for your letter of the 23rd June. I saw Mrs.
Thompson last week, and thought her ~~travelling~~ first-class. I am sure she would do well in the House. The difficulty is how to get her there, as you know.
