28th February

Dear Mr. Kabery,

During the course of the next few days I shall be phoning your secretary with a view to fixing an appointment to see you.

In some time now I have been feeling the temptation to return to active politics. I had intended when I was called to the Bar, to concentrate entirely on legal work but a little experience of

The Revenue Bar, and in Company matters, far from turning my attention from politics has served to draw my attention more closely to the body which is responsible in the legislative department which are come to hold strong views.
A day spent on the Continent U. course tempted me to write you for the week, and having spent further day, a two thinking about I should very much like to have an opportunity of a discussion with you.
Yours sincerely

Dear Mrs. Thatcher,

Referring to the appointment made for us to meet at 12 noon on Wednesday the 14th March, I am afraid I now find that I shall have to be away from the office at that time. I wonder if 4 p.m. on the same day would be an equally convenient time for you? I shall be grateful if you will let me know.

Yours sincerely,

D. KERR.
