THE PRIME MINISTER

10 November 1980

Dear Hugh,

I am glad that a meeting has been arranged with your study-groups and donors at the St. Stephen's Club, for the evening of 9 February 1981. I look forward to hearing about your work, and sharing my vision of the coming years' work here with you. May I take this opportunity to stress my belief in the continued indispensability of the task borne by the Centre for Policy Studies, when we are in office, no less than when we were in opposition, perhaps even more so.

Yours sincerely
Margaret Thatcher

Professor Hugh Thomas.
