

Sunday 25 April 82

Dear Margaret,

Miranda & I cannot thank you enough for the farewell dinner on Friday. It was the most enormously generous & thoughtful send-off and all the more appreciated in the present very difficult circumstances. It was, I think, a particularly happy evening. The atmosphere you created was just exactly right, a coming together of friends who support you in your purpose;

There was thus a wonderful feeling of relaxed good humor, energy & enthusiasm.

Again, from us both,
wang, wang the authors.

Yours ever,

John
